

God's Eternal Law

The Ten Commandments in the New Testament

By Paul Nethercott

Introduction

Many Christians today say that we are no longer under the Ten Commandments [Exodus 20:1-17] as they were only for the Jews. Often you will hear people say that we are no longer under the law but grace. Are the Ten Commandments still binding today? Is the fourth commandment [Exodus 20:8-11] which requires the observance of the seventh day Sabbath [Saturday] still compulsory for Christians today. If Jesus abolished the Ten Commandments on the cross we would expect the following:

1. No reference to the Ten Commandments after the resurrection of Christ.
2. No condemnation for breaking any of them after Christ's resurrection.
3. Sin is no longer breaking the Ten Commandments.
4. No command to keep the Ten Commandments after 31 AD.
5. No reference to the Ten Commandments being the standard in the final judgement.
6. No reference to the Ten Commandments being in heaven for eternity.
7. A new definition of sin other than breaking the Ten Commandments.
8. No reference to Jesus saving us from the sin of breaking the Ten Commandments.
9. The Ten Commandments should only be mentioned in Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.
10. No longer a sin to murder, rape, sodomy, lying, stealing, worship false gods etc.
11. Christians are free to break all of them without repenting.
12. Ten Commandments are reworded after the resurrection of Christ.

The New Testament Ten Commandments

Then said Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shall worship the Lord thy God, and him only shall thou serve.

Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

Revelation 15:3,4

And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous [are] thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true [are] thy ways, thou King of saints. You shall not make unto you any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. When a sinner realises that death is the penalty for transgression, and in sorrow he comes to God for forgiveness, he receives a pardon through Jesus. That pardon is Grace. Would God abolish the very Law that Christ died for to make it possible to give grace to the sinner? If God abolished His Law there would be no transgression and therefore no need of forgiveness or grace. Grace is not something apart from the Law; it is necessary. Paul said to the Christians: “you are not under the law but under grace.” Romans 6:14. Then he said, “shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? God forbid.” Verse 15. In Galatians 3:21 Paul says “the law is not against the promises of God.” How could God abolish His Law and thus do away with Grace too?

39. How could God abolish the Sabbath command when Jesus said He Himself was Lord of the Sabbath? Mark 2:27, 28. And Jesus Himself made the Sabbath. John 1:1-3; Mark 2:27. And it was Christ’s custom to keep it. Luke 4:16.

40. How could Christ abolish His Law and the Sabbath that He made and not say a single word about it to His closest followers? At the same time of His death they kept the Sabbath according to the Commandment. Luke 23:55, 56. Compare Matthew 24:20.

41. How could God abolish the Sabbath when Jesus said: Mt is easier for Heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail?” Luke 16:17.

42. How could God abolish His Commandments when Jesus said that those who worship in vain have the commandments of men? Mark 7:7, 9. The worship which is accepted of God must be where the Commandments of God are taught and obeyed. John 14:21.

43. How could God forsake His Law when that is the very thing that the Bible says the wicked have done? Psalm 119:53.

44. How could God do away with His Law when the Bible says, “The way of transgressors is hard?” Proverbs 13:15. Where there is no law there is no transgression. Romans 4:15.

45. How could God do away with His Law when the Bible says, “He that turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination?” Proverbs 28:9.

46. How could God do away with His Commandments when the Bible says, “The whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His Commandments.” Ecclesiastes. 12:13, 14.

47. How could God do away with His Commandments after He promised to show mercy to all who would keep them? Psalm 103:18.

48. How could God abolish the Commandments that the angels keep? Psalm 103:20.

49. How could God do away with His Law which is so perfect and high that it points the believer to Christ as the end for righteousness-the very highest standard of a perfect sinless life? Romans 10:4. Compare Isaiah 51:7 and James 5:11.

50. How could God abolish His Law which gives comfort in affliction and trial? Psalm 119:92,

51. How could God do away with His Law which gives wisdom and understanding? Psalm 119:98, 100.

52. How could God do away with the very Law that the Righteous, who inherit the New Earth, will have in their hearts? Psalm 37:29-31.

53. How could God do away with the Law that Jesus said was more enduring than the earth itself? Matthew 6:17-19.

54. How could God do away with the Law that forbids murder and adultery? James 2:11, 12.

55. How could God abolish the Commandment that Jesus kept? John 15:10.

56. How could God abolish a Law which is so perfect and wonderful that even if you break any part of it, you are guilty of all? James 2:10-12.

57. How could God abolish the Law that Jesus referred to when He said: "Whosoever shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom?" Matthew 5:19.

58. How could God abolish His Commandment in order to make room for Tradition-the commandments of men? Matthew 15:3, 6, 9.

59. How could God abolish His Law which gives His people liberty when they obey it? James 2:10-12. It is the lawbreaker who is put in Jail and who is in bondage.

62. How could God do away with the Law that tells what sin is when the Bible says: "If any man sin we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous?" I John 3:4 and I John 2:1. Why have an advocate if the law is gone?

63. How could God abolish the Ten Commandments, or Moral Law, at the same time that He abolished the ceremonial law which had to do with the offerings and sacrifices? Ephesians 2:16; Colossians 2:14-17. The Hand writing of Ordinances are not the Ten Commandments. The ceremonial law was instituted to show the people what to do when they broke the Moral Law. By their sacrifices they could show their faith in the great sacrifice which was to be offered on Calvary. All the Sacrifices and offerings pointed forward to Christ. When Jesus died the veil in the temple was rent signifying that the sacrificial or Ceremonial law had ended. Many people confuse the Ceremonial and Moral laws.

64. How could God abolish the Law that has the Sabbath command in it when God Himself ceased from labour and rested on the seventh day, and your Bible says that all who have entered into rest (spiritual rest too) with Him, have ceased from their own works as God did from His? Hebrews 4:4, 10. Read and re-read those two verses.

65. How could God do away with the very Law that His people are to keep in order to have works to show their faith? James 2:18. Read carefully James 2:10-12. The "works" here referred to are works of obedience as the verses plainly indicate. Paul says: "Do we make void the Law through faith? God forbid, we establish the Law." Romans 3:31.

66. How could God do away with the Commandments that Jesus referred to when He said "whosoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven?" Matthew 5:19.

71. How could God do away with the commandments, the same commandments that Jesus said hung on the two Great Commandments of Love to God and Love to Man? Matthew 22:36-40. The first four commandments show our relation to God; the last six show our relation to Man. Thus they all hang on the two principles of love to God and to man.

90. How could God do away with His Law after making the statement that the people have trespassed against His Law, and have “sown the wind and shall reap the whirlwind?” Hosea 8:1-7.

91. How could God abolish the Commandments which is the test by which we know that we know God? I John 2:3.

92. How could God abolish His Commandments and then later have John write that the man who claims to know God and does not keep God’s Commandments, is a liar? I John 2:4.

93. How could God abolish His Commandments, when Jesus kept them and we are told “to walk even as He walked?” I John 2:6.

94. How could God abolish His Commandments and also promise to hear the prayers of those who keep His Commandments? 1 John 3:22.

95. How could God abolish His Commandments and later have John write that those who love God and keep His Commandments will love the children of God? I John 5:2.

99. How could God have abolished His Commandments when it says that the last or remnant people of God will be keeping the Commandments just before Jesus comes to gather the harvest of the earth? Read carefully Revelation 12:17 and Revelation 14:12-16.

100. How could God abolish His Commandments and also promise that in the New Earth His People will be keeping the Sabbath? Isaiah 66:22, 23. The Sabbath Command is in the centre of His Law. The Sabbath is God’s mark or Sign of His Power and authority as the Creator. Exodus 20:8-11. The Sabbath has always been God’s test of obedience. Exodus 16:4, 23, 26-28. God’s Law is in His Heart. May we never wound His heart of love and insult His Grace. If God has abolished His Law then hundreds of texts in your Bible become meaningless and should be left out, for example:

1. All the texts that mention or refer to the Law.
2. All the texts that mention the Commandments of God.
3. All the texts that speak of SIN. (Sin is the transgression of the Law. I John 3:4).
4. All the texts that speak of obedience.
5. All the texts that speak of transgression.
6. All the texts that speak of repentance.
7. All the texts that speak of Jesus as the Saviour from sin.
8. Etc., etc., etc.

If God has abolished any part of His Law then texts that speak of The Law as Perfect, Holy, Unchangeable, etc., become meaningless. “Not one tittle of the Law shall fall.” If we offend in one point we are guilty of all. See James 2:10-12 and Matthew 5:17-19.

1. Jesus came to uphold the Ten Commandments.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. There remains therefore a rest [Greek - Sabbath] to the people of God. Hebrews 4:4, 9.

21. The Ten Commandment Law is part of the New Covenant.

For finding fault with them, he said, Behold, the days come, said the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, said the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, said the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. Hebrews 8:8-10.

22. The who keep the law are blessed by God in what they do.

But they who look into the perfect law of liberty, and continue therein, they being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. James 1:25.

23. We will be judged by the Ten Commandments.

If you fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself, you do well. But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak you, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. James 2:8-12.

24. We must keep the Commandments to know Jesus.

And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that said, I know him, and keeps not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But who so keeps his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. 1 John 2:3, 4.

25. We must keep the Commandments to abide in Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he that keeps his commandments dwells in him, and he in him.

And hereby we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. 1 John 3:22, 24.

26. Sin is transgression of the law.

Whosoever commits sin transgresses also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. 1 John 3:4.

27. The love of God is to keep His Commandments.

By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. 1 John 5:2, 3.

28. The Ark of the Ten Commandment Covenant still in heaven.

And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament. And there were lightning, and voices, and thundering, and an earthquake, and great hail. Revelation 11:19.

29. The Ark of the Ten Commandment Covenant still in heaven.

And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: Revelation 15:5.

30. God's saints keep the commandments.

And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Revelation 12:17.

31. God's saints keep the commandments.

Here is the patience of the saints: here [are] they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. Revelation 14:12.

32. Commandment breakers cast into the Lake of Fire.

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whore mongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Revelation 21:8.

33. God's saints keep the commandments.

Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Revelation 22:14.

34. Lawless people are excluded from the Paradise of God.

For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whore mongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loves and makes a lie. Revelation 22:15.

80 Facts About the Sabbath and Sunday

Forty Seven Bible Facts About Saturday

1. After working six days to create this earth, God rested on the seventh day of the week (Saturday): Genesis 2:1, 2.
2. When God rested upon the seventh day, Saturday became His “rest day.” That is why the Bible calls Saturday “The Sabbath Day.” The word “Sabbath” means “cessation” or “rest.”
3. God blessed the seventh day of the week and made it holy: Genesis 2:3; Exodus 20:11.
4. Just as no one can change your birthday, so Saturday will always be God’s Sabbath day. No human can change the day God has blessed and made holy: Numbers 23:19, 20.
5. God created the Sabbath day before Adam and Eve sinned. Therefore, the Sabbath is not a “type,” or “shadow” since God introduced “types” and “shadows” after sin.
6. Jesus said that the Sabbath was made for man: Mark 2:27.
7. Since the Greek word translated “man” means “human beings,” the Sabbath is meant for every person regardless of his nationality.
8. Jesus said that He is Lord of the Sabbath day: Mark 2:28. Therefore the seventh day is called “The Sabbath Day,” and also “The Lord’s Day.”
9. The Sabbath day is a memorial of creation: Exodus 20:11. Every time we rest from our work on Saturday we are honoring God as our Creator and rejecting the theory of evolution.
10. The Sabbath day is also a memorial of God’s redemptive power: Deuteronomy 5:12-15. God redeems us from our slavery to sin, just as He freed the Israelites from Egyptian slavery.
11. The Bible Sabbath is the seventh day of the week: Genesis 2:3. The calendar shows us that the seventh day of the week is Saturday. The dictionary tells us that Saturday is the seventh day of the week. Astronomers and chronologers agree that ever since creation, the seventh day of the week has never been changed! The seventh day of the week today (Saturday) is the same seventh day of the week that God blessed six thousand years ago!
12. The Sabbath was not invented by the Jews, for it was created by God 2,300 years before there ever was a Jew.
13. The Bible never calls the seventh day of the week “the Jewish Sabbath.”

14. The Sabbath was part of God's Law before the Ten Commandments were given on Mount Sinai: Exodus 16:4, 27-30.

15. In the Ten Commandments God reminded His people to keep the seventh day holy by resting from their daily work: Exodus 20:8-11. Didn't God mean what He said about the Sabbath? Or are the Ten Commandments just God's "Ten Suggestions"? If God meant what He said about lying, stealing, and murder, didn't He also mean what He said about the Sabbath? Which of us has the authority to contradict God?

16. God not only spoke the Ten Commandments-He also wrote them on two stone tablets with His own finger: Deuteronomy 4:13, 14. This plainly indicates that His law is everlasting.

17. God's Law, including the Sabbath commandment, was preserved in the most holy place of the temple. This indicates that God's Ten Commandments are sacred Deuteronomy 10:1-5.

18. Keeping God's Sabbath day holy is a sign that we accept Him as the true God: Ezekiel 20:20.

19. God has pronounced a special blessing on all Gentiles who keep His Sabbath day holy: Isaiah 56:6, 7. The blessing is part of a prophecy which refers entirely to the "Christian dispensation." Therefore God intended for all Christians to keep the Sabbath day holy: Hebrews 4:9, 10.

20. God promises to bless everyone who keeps the Sabbath day holy: Isaiah 56:2.

21. God will bless us if we enjoy the Sabbath and call it "honorable": Isaiah 58:13, 14. Therefore we would not be blessed by God if we said that "the Sabbath is a yoke of bondage," or "an attempt to earn one's salvation." Would we say the same thing about the other nine of God's Ten Commandments? Why do some Christians only disagree with obeying the Sabbath Commandment?

22. The Bible prophesied that in these last days God's people will rediscover and restore His Sabbath to its rightful place: Isaiah 58:12-14.

23. All God's prophets in the entire Bible kept Saturday as the holy Sabbath day.

24. When Jesus, the Son of God, was on earth He kept the Sabbath day holy: Luke 4:16.

25. Jesus lovingly obeyed His Heavenly Father's commandments: John 15:10. Won't we also be blessed by following the example that both God the Father and God the Son set for us?

26. Instead of abolishing it, Jesus carefully taught us how to keep the Sabbath: Matthew 12:9-13.

27. Jesus elevated the Sabbath as a day created to bring blessing to all mankind: Mark 3:1-6.

28. Jesus instructed His followers to pray that they would be able to keep the Sabbath day holy even in war time: Matthew 24:20. The war Jesus spoke about came forty years after His death and resurrection. This indicates that He expected Christians to continue resting on the Sabbath even after His resurrection.

29. The day after Jesus' crucifixion His followers rested on the Sabbath: Luke 23:56. This indicates there was no change in the day of worship as far as they were concerned.

30. In the New Testament the Apostle Paul refers to the seventh day as "The Sabbath" more than ten years after Jesus was raised from the dead: Acts 13:27. Who are we to believe: Paul who said the Sabbath was still honored ten years after Jesus' resurrection-or modern teachers who claim the Sabbath ended at Jesus' death?

31. Luke called Saturday "The Sabbath" nearly thirty years after Jesus' resurrection: Acts 13:44.

32. All the Christian churches and Gentile converts were regularly worshipping on Sabbath at least thirty years after Christ's death and resurrection: Acts 15:19-21. In fact, if the Sabbath had been abolished or changed, certainly this first General Council of the Christian Church would have decreed Sunday as the new day of worship! Instead, this Church Council upheld Saturday as God's holy Sabbath Day!

33. The first Christians referred to the seventh day as "The Sabbath" as they assembled to pray and preach the Gospel on Saturday: Acts 16:13.

34. Like Jesus, it was also Paul's custom to go to church on the Sabbath day, and to preach the Gospel: Act 17:2, 3.

35. The book of Acts alone lists some 84 religious meetings that were held by Christians on the Sabbath: Acts 13:14, 44; 16:13; 17:2; 18:4, 11.

36. Never does the Bible record any argument between Christians and Jews as to which day is the Sabbath. All agree that the seventh day of the week, Saturday, is the Bible Sabbath.

37. In all the charges that the Jews brought against Paul, never once did they accuse him of failing to keep the Sabbath day holy: Acts 25:7, 8. So why do people today claim Paul was against keeping the Sabbath when his personal example proved the opposite?

38. The Sabbath is mentioned in 56 verses of the New Testament.

39. Never once in the Bible does the word "Sabbath" refer to the first day of the week (Sunday).

40. Not once does God's Word even hint that the Sabbath was abolished, changed, or ignored by Christ, His disciples, or any other New Testament Christian.

41. The weekly Sabbath is mentioned with respect every time it appears in the New Testament.

42. Nowhere in the New Testament does God ever give permission for anyone to desecrate the Sabbath by working on that day. Therefore, what authority do modern Christians have for desecrating God's holy Sabbath day (Saturday)?

43. There is not a single example of any Christian in the New Testament who ever performed his daily work on the Sabbath day.

44. There is no statement in the entire Bible that God has ever removed His blessing from the Sabbath day. Therefore the Bible is clear that Saturday continues to be the holy day of rest and worship created by God for all Christians.

45. Jesus specifically stated: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them" (Matthew 5:17). Why then do modern Christians claim Jesus came to abolish God's Sabbath commandment when He says He did not? Since Jesus exactly fulfilled the Old Testament prophecies we can be certain that He is God's Son and our Savior. As our Savior, Jesus also perfectly obeyed God's Law. As our Lord, Jesus instructs us: "If you want to enter life, obey the commandments" (Matthew 19:17). Didn't Jesus mean all ten of God's Ten Commandments?

46. Jesus also specifically stated: "I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law" (Matthew 5:18)! The fact that both heaven and earth still exist is proof that God's Law, and His Sabbath still stand!

47. The Sabbath day will be kept holy by all the saved for all eternity: Isaiah 66:22, 23. Then shouldn't each Christian, choose to follow Jesus' example and keep the Sabbath day holy now?

That is what God's Word says about Saturday, the Bible Sabbath. How could so many modern Christians forget about the day God said was the day for rest and worship? No wonder when God wrote out the Ten Commandments He began the fourth commandment by saying: "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy!" This week will you remember?

Thirty Bible Facts About Sunday

Now let's consider what the Bible has to say about Sunday. And as you read these thirty Bible facts about Sunday ask yourself: Is Sunday the Bible Sabbath? Did Jesus set an example for us by worshipping on the first day of the week? Was the Bible Sabbath changed from Saturday to Sunday? What Bible authority do modern Christians have for keeping Sunday holy? Thirty Bible facts about Sunday

1. According to the Bible, the very first thing God did was to work on Sunday: Genesis 1:1-5. Since God worked on Sunday, can it be wrong for us to follow His example?
2. In the Ten Commandments God stated that the first six days of the week (Sunday through Friday) are work days. But He specifically told us to "Remember the seventh day is a Sabbath. These Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy": Exodus 20:8-11. Modern dictionaries, calendars, and astronomers all agree that the seventh day of the week (Saturday) is the same day of the week that God made holy as the Sabbath. Is it right to disobey God by forgetting what He specifically told us to remember?
3. God never rested upon the first day of the week (Sunday).
4. God never blessed Sunday, but He did bless the seventh day (Saturday): Genesis 2:2, 3.
5. God calls the first six days of the week "working days": Ezekiel 46:1.
6. God's people have used the first day of the week as a common work day for at least 6,000 years.
7. None of the Old Testament patriarchs kept Sunday holy.
8. None of God's Bible prophets ever kept Sunday holy.
9. None of the New Testament Apostles or Christians ever kept Sunday holy.
10. Jesus never observed Sunday as a holy day of rest and worship. Instead, the example He set for us was to obey God by worshipping Him on the Sabbath (Saturday): Luke 4:16.
11. As a carpenter, Jesus worked six days a week (including Sunday): Mark 6:3.
12. Nowhere in the Bible did Jesus ever bless the first day of the week (Sunday).
13. The Bible contains no command of God making Sunday holy.
14. No Bible prophet ever said one word in favor of Sunday as the holy day of worship.
15. There is no law in the Bible requiring us to observe Sunday as a day of rest and worship, or penalizing anyone who works on the first day of the week. Romans 4:15 tells us that where there is no law there can be no transgression (sin). Therefore, according to God's Word, it cannot be a sin to work on Sunday.
16. Since 1 John 3:4 defines sin as breaking God's Law, it is not a sin to follow God's example by working on Sunday. But it is a sin to break God's Law by working on Saturday.
17. Never does the New Testament forbid anyone to work on Sunday.

18. Never does the Bible promise a blessing for anyone who worships on Sunday. But the Bible does promise a blessing to those who remember to keep Saturday holy: Isaiah 56:6, 7.

19. While God has regulations as to how the seventh day Sabbath is to be observed, never once does the Bible provide any regulation concerning how people should worship on the first day of the week. If worshipping on Sunday was God's plan for Christians, wouldn't He have made that crystal clear in the Bible?

20. The Bible never calls Sunday the "Christian Sabbath."

21. The Bible never calls Sunday "The Sabbath."

22. The Bible never calls Sunday "The Lord's Day."

23. The Bible never refers to Sunday as the holy day of rest and worship.

24. The Bible never even mentions the word "Sunday."

25. The Bible simply refers to Sunday as the "first day of the week."

26. As far as the Bible record is concerned, Jesus never even uttered the words "Sunday," or "first day of the week!"

27. The first day of the week is mentioned only eight times in all the New Testament.

28. Six of those eight texts refer to the same Resurrection Sunday. Let's examine each of those eight references to see if even one contains any command to worship on Sunday, or contains any blessing for worshipping on Sunday:

Matthew 28:1

States that the two Marys came to Christ's tomb "after the Sabbath at dawn on the first day of the week (Sunday)." This text is clear that the Bible Sabbath is not the first day of the week. Nothing is said here about changing the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday.

Mark 16:2

Agrees that the two Marys went to Jesus' tomb early on the first day of the week. Comparing with verse 1, again we see that the Bible Sabbath is not the first day of the week. Jesus had been raised from the dead before the women arrived, but there is no command here for us to keep Sunday holy. Instead, even after His resurrection, Saturday is still recognized as the Bible Sabbath.

Mark 16:9

States that Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week. But there is not even a hint He changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday.

Luke 24:1

Repeats the fact that the women went to Jesus' tomb early on Sunday morning. But again there is no command making Sunday holy or changing the day of worship. There is simply no Bible evidence for Sunday to replace Saturday as the Sabbath.

John 20:1

States that Mary came to Jesus' tomb before dawn on the first day of the week. A visit to a graveyard on Sunday does not command Christians to go to church and worship on Sunday!

John 20:19

Records the fact that Jesus appeared to His disciples in the upper room on Sunday evening. This text states the disciples had gathered behind locked doors because of they feared persecution from the Jews. This was not a worship service commemorating Christ's resurrection - the disciples did not even know He was alive! It was a perfect opportunity for Jesus to tell His disciples He had changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday. But Jesus said nothing! Why? Because He had not changed the day of worship! These Bible records no change of the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday. It never calls Sunday a holy day. It never abolishes Saturday as the Bible Sabbath. There is no Bible precedent for worshipping on Sunday. In the Greek, John 20:26 says Jesus met them there again "after eight days." Eight days after Sunday evening is Monday evening. Does this mean we should worship on Monday? Of course not, God's holy day is Saturday!

Acts 20:7

Records the second and last time in the New Testament that Christians specifically gathered together on a Sunday. Notice that they met for two reasons: (1) to eat together ("break bread"), and (2) to bid Paul farewell. They did not celebrate the Lord's Supper (which requires bread and wine). They did not meet to worship God. They did not meet to read the Bible. They did not meet in a church. They did meet in a private home on Sunday evening, indicating that these Christians had spent the day working at their daily occupations before gathering for this special farewell supper. There is no Bible record that Jesus' disciples or the first Christians ever met to worship on Sunday! But the New Testament does list 84 meetings where Christians gathered for worship on Saturday.

1 Corinthians 16:2

Tells of a special offering Paul requested from Gentile Christians to help Jewish Christians in a time of need. Notice the following:

- a. Sunday was the day for examining personal finances and setting aside money for the poor.
- b. This was not an offering collected in church; each person was to individually "set aside" what he could afford.
- c. Each person was to "save up" his contribution until Paul arrived.
- d. Paul specifically stated that he wanted "NO collections" to be made. If these contributions were to be received at church, there certainly would have been a collection made!
- e. Not a word is said here about meeting in church to worship God on Sunday.

These facts are clear that not even once in any of these eight texts is there any Bible evidence to support the modern habit of worshipping in church on the first day of the week (Sunday)!

29. Nowhere does the Bible say that we are to worship on Sunday even as a memorial of Jesus' resurrection. Instead, God's Word states that baptism by immersion commemorates the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus: Romans 6:3-5.

30. The Bible evidence is clear: Sunday, the first day of the week, is a normal work day. According to the Bible, Sunday is not a holy day. Sunday is not the Bible Sabbath. Sunday is not a special day blessed by God. Instead, God created the seventh day (Saturday) as the Bible Sabbath. God never changed the day of rest and worship, and He promises to bless you if you lovingly obey Him: Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 56:1-7.

Fifteen Texts Used Against the Sabbath Answered

1. Didn't Paul condemn the Galatians for "observing special days and months and seasons and years?" Doesn't this mean Paul was teaching that the Sabbath had been abolished? (Galatians 4:10)

The answer to your question is found by understanding who Paul was writing to and what circumstances he was addressing. By reading Galatians 4:8-11 and analyzing the verses surrounding the text you quoted, we discover Paul was not even speaking about the Sabbath. Let's carefully examine what he wrote:

Verse 8 "Formerly, when you did not know God." Here Paul tells us he was not writing to Jews because, as God's chosen nation, the Jews already knew God. Instead Paul was writing to people who were once pagans and who had recently converted to Christianity. Before converting to Christianity these pagans did not know God and they "were slaves to those who by nature are not gods." They were worshipping heathen idols and pagan deities which do not have the divine nature of the true God. Paganism was common in Paul's day, and in 1 Corinthians 10:20 he also had to warn the Corinthian Christians against participating in pagan sacrifices and celebrations.

Verse 9 "But now that you know God." After Paul preached the Gospel to these pagans and they learned about the true God, they converted to Christianity. Now as Christians they know God. But they are beginning to slip back into their old pagan habits: "you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles." These were heathen principles taught by the pagans. What were the "weak and miserable principles" of paganism that these new Christian converts found so appealing that they risked being "enslaved by them all over again?" Paul answers that question in the next verse.

Verse 10 "You are observing special days and months and seasons and years!" Paul wrote this to Christians who were falling back into their old pagan customs. Those "special days" were not the special days that Christians or Jews observe, they were the special days that pagans observed. For instance, pagans celebrated the solstices: June 22 (the beginning of the summer season) and December 22 (the beginning of the winter season). Pagans also celebrated the first day of each week, Sunday, in memory of their Sun god.

They had many fast days and feast days which were part of their pagan religion.

Verse 11 “I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.” Paul had worked hard to present the Gospel to these people. He warned them his efforts would be wasted if they left Christianity by turning back to their old pagan customs and revelry.

Conclusion: There is nothing here about obeying God’s Ten Commandments, or worshipping on the seventh day of the week, or abolishing God’s holy Sabbath day. Instead, Paul is warning his new Christian friends against turning back to the old pagan celebrations they had once observed.

2. Paul tells us in Romans 14:5 no day is more sacred than another, therefore we can worship any day we please.

No, what Paul said is: “one man considers one day more sacred than another; another man considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.” When we look at the context we learn Paul was addressing personal preferences, not direct commands from God. Let’s look carefully at Paul’s words:

In verse 1 Paul tells us he is speaking about “disputable matters.” These are the gray areas of Christian life where personal preferences are exercised, because they do not deal with clearly defined commands of God.

Verses 2-4 tell us these “disputable matters” concern things such as whether or not a person prefers to be a vegetarian. In the absence of a direct command from God to “eat only vegetables,” each person is free to exercise his own personal preference. Paul writes that God accepts our personal preferences in these gray areas.

Verses 5-9 tell us that there are also gray areas when it comes to “days.” Notice the word “sacred” has been added by the translators for the original Greek reads: “One man judges a day above a day, another judges every day.” The King James version reads: “One man esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike.” In other words a fisherman might think the fish bite better on Tuesday than they do on Friday. Or a farmer may prefer to plant his crops on Monday instead of Thursday. Whatever we think about one day being better than another is our personal business.

But in verses 10-12 Paul warns Christians that every one of us will “give an account of himself to God.” While God accepts our personal preferences in the gray areas, He does not permit us to choose which of His commands we will obey. Disobedience is sin and we will be condemned for disobedience: Romans 14:22.

Conclusion: Paul did not say that God’s holy Sabbath day had been abolished. Instead Paul said as long as we obey what God has specifically commanded, we are free to exercise our personal preferences in the gray areas of Christian life. But since God specifically made Saturday holy and clearly designated it as the day for rest and worship, we are sinning if we disobey God’s command.

3. Doesn’t Ephesians 2:15 say the Ten Commandments were abolished by Christ’s death on the cross?

No, Ephesians 2:15 does not even mention the Ten Commandments. Instead it says: “by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations.” The law that Paul was speaking about has both commandments and regulations. That law was the “barrier, the dividing wall of hostility” he referred to in verse 14. It was the ceremonial law with its commandments and regulations about sacrifices and unclean foods that created a wall between Jews and Gentiles. Christ fulfilled the ceremonial law and abolished its regulations and sacrifices through His death. But the moral law in Ten Commandments was not abolished nor was it even relaxed by Christ. Instead, Jesus made the Ten Commandments broader and more far-reaching (Matthew 5:21-48). The Ten Commandments continue to define sin and point sinners to Christ as their Savior (Galatians 3:24). Paul tells us that our faith in Christ never abolishes God’s Ten Commandment law (Romans 3:31).

Conclusion: The ceremonial law which contained commandments and regulations regarding foods and sacrifices was abolished when Christ died on the cross. But the Ten Commandments continue to be in effect as the definition of sin. We Christians must always obey what God specifically requires in His moral law.

4. Paul tells us in Colossians 2:14, 16 that the Ten Commandments were nailed to the cross. Therefore aren't Christians free to worship on Sunday instead of Saturday since the Sabbath commandment no longer is in effect?

Again, the Ten Commandments are not even mentioned here. Instead, Colossians 2:14 says: "having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross." Notice that the Bible makes a distinction between the "written code" which was canceled at the cross and God's Ten Commandments. God's Ten Commandments are eternal and were placed inside the Ark of the Covenant. The ceremonial laws ended at the cross and were kept in a pocket outside of the Ark (Deuteronomy 10:4, 5; 31:24-26). The ceremonial laws are the "written code" which regulated "what you eat or drink" as well as "religious festivals, New Moon celebrations, (and) Sabbaths" (Colossians 2:16). Jesus fulfilled and established the Ten Commandments by living a sinless life; but He fulfilled and abolished the "written code" of ceremonial celebrations and worship services which pointed forward to His first coming as the Messiah (sacrificial lambs, offerings, Annual Holy Days, et cetera). Jesus specifically stated He did not come to abolish God's Ten Commandment Law, but rather to fulfill it by living a sinless life (Matthew 5:17-19).

In the original Greek the words "written code" are literally "the handwritten certificate of indebtedness." The words "code, with its" are supplied by the translators and do not appear in the original Greek. Thus Christ took away the "handwritten certificate of our indebtedness," and nailed it to the cross when He forgave all our sins (Colossians 2:13).

In its simplest terms, this written certificate of indebtedness states: "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). By sinning we are indebted to pay for our sins with our life. But Jesus paid our death penalty on the cross with His life, thus blotting out our death certificate. In addition, He fulfilled the Old Testament prophecies and the religious regulations and ceremonies which pointed forward to His first coming and death on the cross. Thus we can be forgiven for our past sins, but the Ten Commandments were not abolished by Jesus' death on the cross. Therefore we are not free to sin and we must be conformed to the requirements of God's Law through the power of the Holy Spirit working in our lives (Romans 7:7, 12, 13, 22, 25; 8:1-8, 12-14).

Now let's read Colossians 2:16 and study each of the key phrases: "Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day." The word "therefore" refers back to the previous verses where we are told that Christ "forgave us all our sins" (Colossians 2:13); "canceled the written code with its regulations, that was against us" (Colossians 2:14); and by His death on the cross disarmed and triumphed over the "powers and authorities" (Colossians 2:15).

The key point Paul is making here is: "therefore" since Christ has done all this for you, "do not let anyone judge you." Why? Because Christ "forgave us all our sins;" "canceled the written code;" and "triumphed over the powers and authorities" who had the right to condemn us to death for our sins. "Therefore" we are not to judge or be judged by others on the basis of the externals of Judaism's ceremonial laws ("what you eat, drink, religious festivals, New Moon celebrations, or Sabbaths"). What other human beings think in these matters is not important (Romans 14:16-18). But we Christians must always remember God is the final judge of both our actions and our characters (Romans 2:11-16). Since we are all accountable only to Him we must each make certain that we do not deliberately disobey what He has clearly commanded.

Now, let's look specifically at what Paul meant when he said we are not to let people judge us by what we "eat, drink, religious festivals, New Moon celebrations, or Sabbaths." First, remember the Ten Commandments do not regulate "eating or drinking." Those dietary laws are found in the ceremonial regulations God established for the Jews (see Exodus 12:9, 18; Leviticus 3:17; 10:9; chapter 11, et cetera).

Also, the Ten Commandments do not regulate “religious festivals.” The laws concerning Jewish religious festivals are in the ceremonial regulations God established for the Jews (see Exodus 23:14-16; Leviticus 23:41; Numbers 29:12, et cetera). Paul is clear that we are not to judge people by what they eat or drink, or by the religious festivals they keep. But abstaining from judging does not remove our personal responsibility to God, nor does it change the fact that God will judge each of us if we deliberately disobey Him. Read Colossians 3:5, 6 and notice that Paul lists at least three of the Ten Commandments there. Paul is clear that God will judge us by the Ten Commandments.

The Ten Commandments also do not regulate “New Moon celebrations.” New Moon celebrations were regulated by the ceremonial laws God established for the Jews (see Numbers 28:14; Ezra 3:5; Psalm 81:3, et cetera).

But, what about the phrase “a Sabbath day?” The original Greek reads “in respect of a feast or of a new moon or of sabbaths.” The words “a Sabbath day” are supplied by the translators! The Hebrew word “Sabbath” means “rest.” All Jewish religious feasts and festivals were called “Sabbaths” because they were times of rest from daily work. The Jews celebrate six annual Holy Days which they call “Annual Sabbaths” (Passover, Day of Atonement, Feast of Tabernacles, Pentecost, Feast of Trumpets and First Fruits). The Ten Commandments do not regulate these annual “Sabbaths.” It is the ceremonial law God established for the Jews that regulates all those annual Sabbath Festivals (Leviticus 16:1-34; 23:5-25, 34-36).

These Annual Sabbath Festivals began with Moses in 1450 BC, pointed forward to Christ and ended at the Cross. But the weekly Sabbath Day began on the seventh day of creation week, 2,500 years before there ever was a Jew, and continues for all eternity (Isaiah 66:22, 23). The Sabbath is part of God’s eternal Ten Commandment Law which will be used to judge every person (Ecclesiastes 12:13, 14; 1 John 3:4; James 2:10-12; Matthew 15:3-9).

5. In Galatians 2:19 Paul says that he died to the law. Doesn’t that mean he didn’t bother to keep God’s Ten Commandments once he became a Christian?

No. Before Paul became a Christian he tried to earn his salvation by keeping God’s Law. Now, as a Christian, Paul has come to the realization that God’s Ten Commandments are not a method for earning salvation - rather the Ten Commandments are designed to define sin, restrain evil, and turn us to Jesus for cleansing, forgiveness and salvation (Romans 3:20-24). Thus Paul “died to the law” as a method for earning salvation and he now relies fully on Jesus Christ for his salvation (Galatians 2:17-21). There’s nothing here about doing away with God’s Ten Commandments or doing away with the weekly Sabbath day.

6. Doesn’t Paul tell us in Romans 3:28 that we are justified by faith, therefore we don’t have to observe the Ten Commandments?

It is absolutely true that only Jesus justifies (“saves”) us, and that we must have a growing faith in Him. God’s Ten Commandments can never save us. But let’s read on to see what Paul said in verse 31: “Do we then nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.” A saved Christian chooses to obey God’s Law, not because he’s trying to earn salvation, but because it is natural to obey the God we love and worship (Matthew 22:35-40; 1 John 5:2, 3).

7. Since Galatians 2:16 tells us that we are not saved by keeping the Law, shouldn’t we forget God’s Ten Commandments and just love Jesus?

No, Jesus said if we love Him we will obey what He commands (John 14:15). Love can never be separated from obedience. Many people think that since Paul condemns law-keeping as a method of earning salvation, that he is against God’s Ten Commandments. However in the next two verses (Galatians 2:17, 18) Paul makes it clear that it is not his intention to teach Christians to sin by breaking God’s law! Notice positively Paul speaks about God’s Law:

Paul's View of God's Law

- A. Christians do not nullify ("make of no value") God's Law by their faith in Jesus. Instead, our faith upholds God's Law: Romans 3:31.
- B. Keeping God's Commandments is what counts in a positive, loving, Christian life: 1 Corinthians 7:19.
- C. God's Law is good if it is used properly: 1 Timothy 1:8.
- D. If God's Law did not exist, there would be no sin (and therefore there would be no need for grace and no need for our Savior Jesus Christ): Romans 5:13.
- E. We are to put away our sinful natures: Romans 13:12-14.
- F. Being under grace does not give us a license to sin: Romans 6:15.
- G. God's Law is holy, righteous and good: Romans 7:12.

The Bible is clear that we are not loyal to God if we deliberately choose to disobey Him: 1 John 2:3-6; 3:3-6.

8. In Matthew 5:17 Jesus said He came to fulfill the Law. Doesn't this mean that He abolished God's Ten Commandments?

When we read this text very carefully we discover that Jesus specifically stated He did not come to abolish the Law. Instead, Jesus promises us in verse 18 that as long as heaven and earth exist not a single stroke of a pen will disappear from God's Law! The Holy Spirit informs us in 1 John 3:5 that Jesus came to "take away our sins," not to take away God's Law! Remember, simply because I "fulfill" the speed limit by driving 55 miles an hour on Monday does not mean I have abolished the speed limit law and now can drive 75 on Tuesday! Any policeman will tell us "fulfilling" the law does not abolish the law.

9. Doesn't Paul say that we are not under the Law, but under Grace? (See Romans 6:14).

Yes. But he also says being under grace doesn't give us an excuse to sin by breaking God's Ten Commandment Law because "sin shall not be your master" (see verses 14 and 15). Paul is not against God's Ten Commandments, he is against anyone trying to earn eternal life by keeping them. The Ten Commandments are not designed to save us and cannot save us. They define sin and point us to Jesus for our salvation. Through His grace we receive forgiveness for our sins and Divine power to overcome them: 1 John 1:9. The more Christ-like we become, the more offensive sin will be to us, and the greater our appreciation will be that Jesus died to pay the penalty for our sins! Remember, Jesus died to pay the penalty for sin (law-breaking), He did not die to take away the Ten Commandments so we could live in sin.

10. Weren't the Ten Commandments given to the Jews and not to Christians?

We have just demonstrated that the Ten Commandments are repeated in the New Testament and that everyone, including Christians, will be judged by God's eternal Ten Commandment Law. So we Christians cannot really believe that God would permit us to lie, steal, murder and commit adultery, while He prohibited the Jews from committing those same sins!

God does not have one law for Christians and another law for Jews. Neither does God have separate laws for Pagans, Atheists, Hindus and Moslems. Both the Old and New Testaments are clear that every person will be judged according to God's Ten Commandments. Paul tells us that we "are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus" (Galatians 3:26-29). As far as God is concerned, there is no Jew or Gentile – He treats us all as one in Christ. God's Ten Commandments define sin for every person on earth and point every one of us to Jesus Christ for salvation (Romans 3:29-31). Paul is clear that if God's Ten Commandments had been abolished there would be no sin and thus we would not need Jesus Christ as our Savior (Romans 5:13). All of God's people are to live within the bounds He set for us in His Ten Commandments.

11. Doesn't God expect us to do more than just keep the Ten Commandments? That's too simple!

The Bible tells us in Deuteronomy 5:22 that after giving His people the Ten Commandments, God "added nothing more." Solomon, the world's wisest man, wrote: "Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man” (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Jesus said: “If you want to enter life, obey the commandments” (Matthew 19:17). If we are keeping God’s Ten Commandments through God’s indwelling power because we love Him, they are sufficient. But if we are keeping God’s Ten Commandments on our own merits because we are trying to earn our salvation, then they are not enough. Jesus’ most scathing rebukes were directed to religious people who added to God’s commandments hoping to earn a place in heaven by keeping many rules (Luke 11:46, 52; Mark 7:6-9). Our salvation depends upon our relationship with Jesus, while our Christian duty to God and to man is defined by God’s Ten Commandments.

12. Isn’t it all right to choose our own day of worship as long as we keep one day out of seven?

Not if we are going to follow the Bible. Sunday-observing Christians will quickly agree the Bible specifies that Jesus is the only name that can save us (Acts 4:12). They do not say it is all right to “choose one name out of seven.” They also agree the Bible states there is only one Lord, one faith, one baptism and one God - not one out of many to choose from (Ephesians 4:5, 6). So why do many Sunday-observing Christians stumble over the Bible fact that Saturday is the only day of the week that God made holy and commanded us to use for rest and worship (Genesis 2:2, 3; Exodus 20:8-11)? God made one day holy, and He commanded us to keep it holy! His commands are not multiple choice.

13. Does it really matter whether or not we keep the Sabbath? Aren’t there bigger issues to focus on such as loving Jesus?

Should we tell a murderer he can murder as long as he “loves Jesus?” Can a thief go on stealing as long as he “loves Jesus?” No! God takes sin so seriously that He destroyed all unrepentant sinners in the Flood (Genesis chapters 6-8). Sin is so serious that it cost the life of God’s Son, Jesus Christ (John 3:16). And, at the end, God will destroy all unrepented sinners when He cleanses this earth of all sin. The Ten Commandments define sin (1 John 3:4). No Christian is safe to continue breaking God’s Ten Commandments while professing to love Jesus Christ (1 John 2:4). God’s Ten Commandments are not His Ten Suggestions!

14. How can we be certain that the seventh day of the week God blessed 6,000 years ago is the day we now call Saturday?

It is very simple to prove that the weekly cycle has never been broken throughout the history of this earth. Consider the following:

God blessed the seventh day and made it holy during Creation Week (Genesis 2:2, 3). This was the beginning of the weekly cycle. Four thousand years later the New Testament clearly states Jesus worshipped on Saturday. He was crucified on Friday (the Jews called the sixth day of the week “Preparation Day”), rested in the grave during the Sabbath (the seventh day of the week we call Saturday), and rose early on the first day of the week (Sunday morning) (see Luke 23:52-24:1).

For two thousand years Christians have memorialized Easter Sunday, the first day of the week, as the day Christ rose from the dead. For two thousand years the Jews have carefully kept track of Saturday, the seventh day of the week, as the day God made holy. There simply is no debate that Saturday is the seventh day of the week and Sunday is the first day of the week. The Dictionary clearly states Saturday is the seventh day of the week. Even astronomers are certain that the weekly cycle has never been broken from creation to the present day.
